Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2010/06/30 : CIA-RDP80T00246A039900280001-9 PROCESSING CUPT

INFORMATION REPORT INFORMATION REPORT

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

This material contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U.S.C. Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelation of which in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

	C- O-K-F-I-
COUNTRY	Poland	REPORT
SUBJECT	Housing Problems in Poland	DATE DISTR.	31 JAN 1 958	) ,
	-	NO. PAGES	1	057/4
		¥		25X1
DATE OF		REFERENCE
INFO.				25X1
DATE ACQ.	COURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE	APPRAISAL OF CONTENT	IS TENTATIVE.	25X1
		Housing Problems	in Poland.	The document
	includes information on:	•	•
	1. The need for urban and	rural dwelling rooms	during 1956-19	960
	<ol> <li>The need for urban and :</li> <li>Deterioration, and subsiduelling rooms during to period 1956-1960.</li> <li>The information mainly concerns regeneral.</li> </ol>	equent destruction on the period 1950-1955,	r retirement fi and expected (	rom use, or huring the ſ	Deterioration, and subsiduelling rooms during to period 1956-1960.  The information mainly concerns	equent destruction on the period 1950-1955,	r retirement fi and expected (	rom use, or huring the
	Deterioration, and subsiduelling rooms during to period 1956-1960.  The information mainly concerns	equent destruction on the period 1950-1955,	r retirement fi and expected (	num use, or huring the
	Deterioration, and subsiduelling rooms during to period 1956-1960.  The information mainly concerns	equent destruction on the period 1950-1955,	r retirement fi and expected (	num use, or huring the
	Deterioration, and subsiduelling rooms during to period 1956-1960.  The information mainly concerns	equent destruction on the period 1950-1955,	r retirement fi and expected (	num use, or huring the
	Deterioration, and subsiduelling rooms during to period 1956-1960.  The information mainly concerns	equent destruction on the period 1950-1955,	r retirement fi and expected (	num use, or huring the
	Deterioration, and subsiduelling rooms during to period 1956-1960.  The information mainly concerns	equent destruction on the period 1950-1955,	r retirement fi and expected (	num use, or huring the
	Deterioration, and subsiduelling rooms during to period 1956-1960.  The information mainly concerns	equent destruction on the period 1950-1955,	r retirement fi and expected (	num use, or huring the
	Deterioration, and subsiduelling rooms during to period 1956-1960.  The information mainly concerns	equent destruction on the period 1950-1955,	r retirement fi and expected (	num use, or huring the
	Deterioration, and subsiduelling rooms during to period 1956-1960.  The information mainly concerns	equent destruction on the period 1950-1955,	r retirement fi and expected (	num use, or huring the
	Deterioration, and subsiduelling rooms during to period 1956-1960.  The information mainly concerns	equent destruction on the period 1950-1955,	r retirement fi and expected (	num use, or huring the
	Deterioration, and subsiduelling rooms during to period 1956-1960.  The information mainly concerns general.	equent destruction on the period 1950-1955,	r retirement fi and expected (	num use, or huring the
STATE	2. Deterioration, and subsiduelling rooms during to period 1956-1960.  The information mainly concerns general.	equent destruction of the period 1950-1955, urban dwellings; rur	r retirement fi and expected (	num use, or huring the

INFORMATION

INFORMATION

	C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L
		25X1
		20/()
NTRY	: Poland DATE: 6 December 1957
JECT	: Housing Problems in Poland
	NO. OF PAGES: 2	25 X 1
		23/1
Need fo	or urban and rural dwelling rooms during 1956-60:	OEVA
a		25X1
url	a total of 1,200,000 an dwelling rooms was needed in Poland to prevent further de1	erioration of the housing situation. This figure was set	05.74
uri	oan rooms had been built. Under the 1956-60 Five Year Plan there	25 X 1 200
3U.	to be a yearly rate of increase over this figure of about
30,	000 rooms which would bring the number built in 1960 up to	25 X 1
30, 300 and	000 rooms which would bring the number built in 1960 up to this goal was unrealistic according to expert opinions, a total of only about	25X1
300 300 an d 1,0	000 rooms which would bring the number built in 1960 up to this goal was unrealistic according to expert opinions, a total of only about 00,000 urban rooms would be built during the Five Year Plan.	25X1 25X1
30, 300 and 1,0 ins	occording to expert opinions, a total of only about tead of the 1,200,000 officially planned.  n the housing construction program of the Five Year Plan would
30, 300 and 1,0 ins eve not	000 rooms which would bring the number built in 1960 up to  000 this goal was unrealistic according to expert opinions, a total of only about  00,000 urban rooms would be built during the Five Year Plan.  tead of the 1,200,000 officially planned.  In the housing construction program of the Five Year Plan would solve the situation and further deterioration was expected.
30, 300 and 1,0 ins eve not to tha	cooperation and further deterioration was expected occur despite the program. It was also estimated by experts the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would
30, 300 and 1,0 ins eve not to tha	000 rooms which would bring the number built in 1960 up to  000 this goal was unrealistic according to expert opinions, a total of only about  00,000 urban rooms would be built during the Five Year Plan.  tead of the 1,200,000 officially planned.  In the housing construction program of the Five Year Plan would solve the situation and further deterioration was expected.
30, 300 and 1,0 ins eve not to tha inc	oto be a yearly rate of increase over this figure of about one of the number built in 1960 up to this goal was unrealistic according to expert opinions, a total of only about o0,000 urban rooms would be built during the Five Year Plan. tead of the 1,200,000 officially planned.  In the housing construction program of the Five Year Plan would solve the situation and further deterioration was expected occur despite the program. It was also estimated by experts to the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would rease from 1.7 in 1956 to 1.8 in 1960.
30, 300 and 1,0 ins eve not to that inc	occur despite the program. It was also estimated by experts t the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would rease from 1.7 in 1956 to 1.8 in 1960.  To be a yearly rate of increase over this figure of about 1960 up to this goal was unrealistic according to expert opinions, a total of only about 00,000 urban rooms would be built during the Five Year Plan. tead of the 1,200,000 officially planned.  It was also estimated by experts t the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would rease from 1.7 in 1956 to 1.8 in 1960.  Tural rooms  Planned by the Planning Commission but left to the rural
30, 300 and 1,0 ins eve not to tha inc b. not	occur despite the program. It was also estimated by experts the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would rease from 1.7 in 1956 to 1.8 in 1960.  Tural rooms  rural rooms  rural rooms  perials by the voivodship national councils. The Ministry of
30, 300 and 1,0 ins eve not to tha inc b. not	occur despite the program. It was also estimated by experts t the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would rease from 1.7 in 1956 to 1.8 in 1960.  Tural rooms  rural rooms  rural rooms  rural solutions and were regulated by the allocation of building erials by the voivodship national councils. The Ministry of iculture conducted studies along these pulsations and the seriors and the rural rooms of the program of the rural rooms of the planning commission but left to the rural rural rooms.
30, 300 and 1,0 ins eve not to tha inc b. not com mat	occur despite the program. It was also estimated by experts the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would rease from 1.7 in 1956 to 1.8 in 1960.  Tural rooms  planned by the Planning Commission but left to the rural munes and were regulated by the allocation of building erials by the voivodship national councils. The Ministry of iculture conducted studies along these lines, and the allocation to villages of some construction
30, 300 and 1,0 ins eve not to tha ine b. not com mat Agr mat	occur despite the program. It was also estimated by experts the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would rease from 1.7 in 1956 to 1.8 in 1960.  Tural rooms  rural rooms  planned by the Planning Commission but left to the rural munes and were regulated by the allocation of building erials by the voivodship national councils. The Ministry of iculture conducted studies along these lines, and the allocation to villages of some construction and for capital repairs; in 1957,000 tons of cement and about 1,000,000 m³ boards were
30, 300 and 1,0 ins eve not to tha ine b. not com mat Agr mat	cooperate of increase over this figure of about cooperate of a yearly rate of increase over this figure of about cooperate opinions and to expert opinions, a total of only about cooperate of the 1,200,000 officially planned.  In the housing construction program of the Five Year Plan would solve the situation and further deterioration was expected occur despite the program. It was also estimated by experts the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would rease from 1.7 in 1956 to 1.8 in 1960.  Tural rooms  planned by the Planning Commission but left to the rural munes and were regulated by the allocation of building estials by the voivodship national councils. The Ministry of iculture conducted studies along these lines, and the allocation to villages of some construction estials for new constructions and for capital repairs: in 1957	25X1
30, 300 and 1,0 ins eve not to tha inc b. not com mat Agr mat	occur despite the program. It was also estimated by experts the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would rease from 1.7 in 1956 to 1.8 in 1960.  Tural rooms  planned by the Planning Commission but left to the rural munes and were regulated by the allocation of building erials by the voivodship national councils. The Ministry of iculture conducted studies along these lines, and the allocation to villages of some construction to villages of some construction program for capital repairs; in 1957, 2000 tons of cement and about 1,000,000 m3 boards were for three times this amount was needed because for three times this amount was needed because for 30, 300 and 1,0 ins eve not to tha ino b. not com mat Agr mat 900 all	occur despite the program. It was also estimated by experts the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would rease from 1.7 in 1956 to 1.8 in 1960.  Tural rooms  planned by the Planning Commission but left to the rural munes and were regulated by the allocation of building erials by the voivodship national councils. The Ministry of iculture conducted studies along these lines, and the allocation to villages of some construction erials for new constructions and for capital repairs; in 1957,000 tons of cement and about 1,000,000 m³ boards were three times this amount was needed because for many years rural housing had been neglected in the allocation	25X1
b. not commat Agr	oto be a yearly rate of increase over this figure of about comes which would bring the number built in 1960 up to this goal was unrealistic according to expert opinions, a total of only about conjugation of the 1,200,000 officially planned. It was also estimated by experts the program. It was also estimated by experts the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would rease from 1.7 in 1956 to 1.8 in 1960.  The planned by the Planning Commission but left to the rural munes and were regulated by the allocation of building erials by the voivodship national councils. The Ministry of iculture conducted studies along these lines, and the allocation to villages of some construction erials for new constructions and for capital repairs; in 1957,000 tons of cement and about 1,000,000 m3 boards were constructed much more than in 1056.  Three times this amount was needed because for many years rural housing had been neglected in the allocation in pre-war Poland about.	25X1
b. not commat Agr	this goal was unrealistic according to expert opinions, a total of only about 00,000 urban rooms would be built during the Five Year Plan.  tead of the 1,200,000 officially planned.  In the housing construction program of the Five Year Plan would solve the situation and further deterioration was expected occur despite the program. It was also estimated by experts to the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would rease from 1.7 in 1956 to 1.8 in 1960.  Tural rooms  planned by the Planning Commission but left to the rural munes and were regulated by the allocation of building erials by the voivodship national councils. The Ministry of iculture conducted studies along these lines, and the allocation to villages of some construction erials for new constructions and for capital repairs; in 1957,000 tons of cement and about 1,000,000 m3 boards were coated, which represented much more than in 1056  three times this amount was needed because for many years rural housing had been neglected in the allocation in pre-war Poland about 100,000 tons of cement had been sold to the villages.	25X1
b. not commat Agr	oto be a yearly rate of increase over this figure of about comes which would bring the number built in 1960 up to this goal was unrealistic according to expert opinions, a total of only about conjugation of the 1,200,000 officially planned. It was also estimated by experts the program. It was also estimated by experts the percentage of inhabitants for one dwelling room would rease from 1.7 in 1956 to 1.8 in 1960.  The planned by the Planning Commission but left to the rural munes and were regulated by the allocation of building erials by the voivodship national councils. The Ministry of iculture conducted studies along these lines, and the allocation to villages of some construction erials for new constructions and for capital repairs; in 1957,000 tons of cement and about 1,000,000 m3 boards were constructed much more than in 1056.  Three times this amount was needed because for many years rural housing had been neglected in the allocation in pre-war Poland about.	25X1

C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L

C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L

	credits for capital repairs were substantially increased under the Five Year Plan.
	the Ministry of Communal Economy received about 1,500,000,000 zlotys in 1955, and even more in 1956, These sums are insufficient, however, and further deterioration, especially in about 700 small towns, was expected.	25 X 1
	the western territories in 1957 the administration had started to sell one-family houses to private buyers on very convenient credit terms. if this selling policy	25 X 1
	data bolling policy	23/1
	continued and was adopted throughout Poland, deterioration	• might be halted because owners would be more likely to maintain and take care of their own homes.
	and take care of their own homes.	25 Y 1
c.	and take care of their own homes.	25 X 1
c.	and take care of their own homes.	25 X 1
c.	and take care of their own homes.  1,000,000 homesteads needed capital	25X1

Comment.

25X1

1. Jedrychowski wrote an article on housing problems which was published in Polish monthly Nowe Drogi in March 1956.

Professor Dr. Andrzejewski, director of the Construction Research Institute in Warsaw also wrote an article on housing problems in Poland which was published in the April 1957 issue of the economic quarterly, Kwartalnik Ekonomiczny.

25X1

C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L